

CSSS Listserv Guidelines

CS3 is a listserv to facilitate information sharing among the Council of State Science Supervisors community as a means to share questions, resources and other information to assist members in their day to day work in science education.

Listserv Use Guidelines:

The CS3 listserv is not for commercial or private use. Both normal "netiquette" and academic freedom of expression are expected of users to maximize its utility. Please follow these simple guidelines in using the listserv:

- All postings should be signed with the subscriber's name, job title, organization name and e-mail address.*
- All responses to postings should be signed with the subscriber's name, job title, organization name and e-mail address.*
- Personal messages should be sent directly to an individual's e-mail address, NOT to the list.*
- This listserv is not intended for advertising, product-related press releases or other commercial use.*
- The opinions expressed in listserv discussions are those of individual subscribers and not necessarily those of their institutions. CSSS is not responsible for the opinions expressed on the list.*

The administrator for the CS3 listserv reserves the right to suspend or to permanently delete subscribers who violate these guidelines. If you have any questions pertaining to the use of this listserv or the guidelines for its usage contact the list administrator at csss-owner@lists.uen.org